the Irregular Newsletter for May 2023

My first novel is coming soon!

I know. You're wondering where a whole novel came from. Either you didn't know I wrote because I never told you, or you forgot I wrote because you've been waiting so long, or you knew and never thought it would happen, kind of like me some days, but it is coming soon! Really.

As you can plainly see by my expression and my inability to sit still, I am excited.

It is titled First Casualty.

Here is the cover art!

A link has been posted on Facebook. A QR code will follow soon so you have another way to find it.

A reminder of who I am:

William J. Anderson, often referred to as Bill, not a bill or the Bill, or even Whispering Bill (you country music fans better catch that reference), just Bill (and there are too many of them), lives in Champlin. He writes and publishes non-fiction and poetry as William J. Anderson or wmjAnderson. His alter ego, A.W. Powers, writes and publishes paranormal thrillers, thrillers and horror.

Bill is the vice-president of the Cracked Walnut Chapter of the League of Minnesota Poets.

A.W. Powers is the creator of the Psychic Guardian Angel series published on the Marlowe and Vane imprint of LMBPN Publishing.

You're receiving this newsletter because you are somehow in the life of Bill. Thank you for being part of it.

Congratulations to Jennifer Schreifels, who came to the Once Upon a Crime Bookstore event I shared with C.N. Buchholz.

Jennifer won a copy of First Casualty in a raffle.

Watch for more chances to win something reasonably wondrous.

Congratulations, Jennifer. The book will be in the mail.

Thanks for playing.
